As my mother (Aunt) your love was always present. You will be missed but your spirit will live on in me and my family. I will forever hold on because you gave me so much to live with. You taught me to acknowledge him in all that I do and say. .My condolences to Asentha, Anita (Walter), Pandora and all the grandchildren and great grandchildren. Keep your mother's and grandmother's love in your heart and her legacy will live on through you. May God's love shine over you.

Great-Grandma Magdelene to my Grandchildren; Malik Kayah and Asah was a Woman I aspire to immlate conversations with were and are very valuable to me. She told me during one Wisdom Session, to just Trust and Believe in God and Abide by his Commandments and treasure my Family, all else will be. She embraced me from the moment we meet, love and miss you Grandma.

Grandma Andrews was one the nicest women I've ever met with so much wisdom to share and so much love to give. I will always cherish the dinners I've shared with her and her family as well that the lessons she taught at Sunday school. I've know her for about 20 years. Even though I am not family, I always felt loved in the presence of her and her children. My deepest condolences to her daughter's, grandchildren and great grandchildren. You all are in my prayers and her legacy lives on. Tawana

Hey Alef and family...Please accept my heartfelt condolences as you prepare for Mom's Homegoing. Know that you have been blessed having her AND sharing her with others. I will always remember the HAPPY TIMES of her serving and sharing at our school. Her life was lived to touch others. Her warm friendly, "Never meet a stranger" personality always added joy for us and our kids when she visited our school...I'll always remember how her physical appearance reminded me of my MAMA...As they say, " We all get a chance to sit on the front row...Been there, know exactly how it feels...Your faith will keep you because God will...His Everloving Arms of Mercy and Grace are wrapped around you and yours...Peace Be with you, especially your sisters. Lov You, DeLisle C. Horton Willis 🍷xoxoxo

I remember the first day I met you. The love you showed me will always be in my heart. You will be loved and missed forever. You are my best experience and example of a Christian Woman and I was so very lucky to have you call me your granddaughter. You never put (in law) in the sentence. You loved me for me and I will forever remember all of the knowledge I received from you. I love you always and forever. Kenyatta

Mother Andrews, A very dear person that I will truly miss. She always had an I love you and smile for me. I remember the last Sunday she was leaving church I blew her a kiss from the car and she smiled and blew one back. Was very nice about showing love to every one even the youth. I shall miss her but find comfort in knowing she truly was a women after Gods heart and lived each day showing it.
