JR (as we all call him) was a beloved member of the Farrow Group family. He was humorous, dedicated, protective and loyal. He will be missed deeply. We pray and trust that God will comfort all of his family and friends and give peace now and in each day ahead. Grace and peace.

My sincere condolences to the Cruthfield family. For nearly 60 years "Crutch" was my true friend. We met on our first job at Old Dutch Potato Chips in 1959 in Minneapolis and have remained friends ever since. We talked on the phone almost daily. He had a quick wit that was rare and a laugh that was infectious. He will be sorely missed. E. Foley
