I have and will keep fond memories of our sister Jamika. She was a light to me when I worked with her in Detroit, Henry Ford. Some days, her morning hug, and then later as the day was over, ending it with another got us through the day's challenges. Her words and straightforwardness are and will be kept in high regard. The world is a better place because of Jamika through her life. Our mortal sister may not be walking with us here, however, her Spirit and prayers are with Those that now are with her. She is watching and praying for and with us in God's Loving Presence.
