Anissa and I grew up together. We spent so many hours on the steps to her front porch talking and playing. She had the biggest smile from ear to ear. She was my best friend. What I remember most is - her home was always a safe place. She made you feel important and welcome. I will love her and carry her in my heart Forever.

Nissa will be truly missed, but never will be forgotten. I have known for 47 years and she is my oldest daughter Markita, God Sister. We used to play baseball in the field across the on Mt.Vernon, we played football in the middle of the street, we went to nursery school, elementary and middle school together. Her twins was in my wedding. I can go on and on. She always have a Smile that would Light Up The World. I will Carry On Our Memories For A Lifetime and Until We Meet Again At The Pearly Gates. 😭😞❤️
