Earl Folks and family,Sharing sincere sympathy and to paraphrase Iyanla Vanzant:When we lose a loved one.. it is perfectly normal to grieve. We must honor and recognize each stage of the grief and every emotion we have. There will be shock, denial, anger, confusion, fear, helplessness and numbness.Grief is natural, normal and to be expected. Take time to grieve and know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.Sincerely,Evelyn Rivers-Owens

Lynette I love you so much and I am so glad that we shared our childhood together. I pray that the Lord comforts your husband Whoop (Earl) and your children Adrian and Ellis. Lord comfort her father and brothers and sister. I pray God also comforts the Folks family. You have grown to live such a full life. Lynette you dedicated your life to your children and the children of River Rouge as well as the children that came into contact with your babies. That is not a small task. Being a coach, a teacher and a mentor is a gift. You have created memories, opportunities as well helped children make life decisions to help them grow to successful adults. You just had a magnetism the drew people to you. I am sooo hurt that you are gone and angry at the same time...I love you so much. I do not like the feeling that this has given me and I pray for healing and justice for your families.Love you,Wendy Dunson
