Ms. Brown was a beautiful woman, mom to her own and mother to many others! Being Robin's roommate for most of our 4 years at Central State University certain had its PERKS! And.. one BIG PERK was Ms. Brown. She treated me like her very own daughter all while I was in college and beyond. Ms. Brown came to visit often, brought goodies & money often and gave out plenty of HUGS and KISSES often. She was super sharp all time (hair done, nails done, make-up on)! She loved everybody and she wasn't afraid to show it! Whenever I was in Detroit, when I would go to the house, she would make good food and plenty of it. Her home was already spotless and furniture in perfect place. I will never forget when both my sister and I were pregnant with our first born children and stayed the weekend at her house, she treated us like fragile glass. She made us feel so special. She made sure we were not doing anything strenuous and she kept feeding us delicious food!! I loved when she came to Cincinnati because she was always going to be smiling and happy! She loved the LORD and she loved her kids and she showered them with endless love. It spilled over on me and I am a much better person for it! She came to our baby showers, weddings...you name it and she was there..wearing beautiful clothing and beautiful jewelry and MOST importantly, she would be wearing the glow of GOD and a beautiful SMILE! My condolences to the family! Cheryl Wright Lavender
