MR. CLARENCE HALL

MAR 9, 1944 - JUL 7, 2020

Rhonda lit a candle in honor of CLARENCE.

To the Hall Family, In Remembrance of Clarence , my family and I extend our most sincere sympathy to you upon the loss of such a great man, a father, a brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. There is such a lonesomeness after a loss of a loved one, but we want you to know that our family is praying for you and sympathizing with you in this time, May your faith give you strength and bring each of you "Peace". Renardo, words may not suffice to express the heartfelt sorrow that we feel for the passing of Clarence but please accept our condolences and we will be sure to include your family especially in our prayers. Rhonda "Sweet Thunder" & the Davis Family...love you cuz!

Family, I extend my condolences to you on behalf of my dear cousin/ big brother Clarence. It was sad to hear that my beloved cousin/ brother Clarence's had passed. Renaldo the torch has been passed to you cousin, so hold it so high that your light can be seen throughout the family. Regana, remember that the roots run deep and let nothing separate you and your brother from each other and the love of God. Hang in there as "there is no sorrow that heaven cannot heal". I love you Cousin's. The Mississippi, Chicago and Detroit Thomas/Nelson/Norwood/Washington families send our live and condolences Your beloved cousin, Regina Hudson-Kirtz ❤️🙏🙏😭🥹
