Tony never hesitated to show kindness or concern for me and my family. Sometimes he would just call. He loved to smile! He will definitely be missed but not forgotten. Thank you for your good heart!

This is feeling so surreal that I'm writing something to my brother because you're no longer physically here with me. Tony we had plans to be old men together living and loving life together. Who am I now going to whoop in UNO and talk about after??? My entire being is hurting right now bro, I've cried, cussed, drank too much trying to ease my pain. I take comfort that you are in the arms of mom and I know for a fact you are safe and without pain and suffering. I promise I will do all I can to support your girls and grandchild future grandchildren. Love you and damnit I'm going to truly miss my protector when needed, my best friend, and most importantly my big brother. ♥♥♥ #snarffsnarff #brotherlylove
