Our Deepest Condolences is with the Brinson Family. I met Torrance, through my husband Khamisi and he called Torrance his "Favorite Cousin." Torrance is more than his favorite cousin and more like "Best Friends." Torrance remembered everything, he called on each one of the kids birthday, graduations, and made to the hospital to see Khamisi all the time. Every where we moved Torrance came and stayed weekends with his "Favorite Cousin." I remember when Torrance, Lenard and Khamisi would watch the football games and sit and talk junk for hours enjoying each others time together. Torrance beautiful smile made you want to be around him. A Loving Kindhearted Man, who loved to eat food and enjoyed being around family and friends. Torrance A Real Friend. We Will Miss You Dearly Rest Peacefully Our Favorite Cousin Torrance.Love Khamisi, Shantel and Family

May we offer our sincere condolences to the Brinson family for your loss. Losing a loved one is one of the most difficult things in life to deal with. Lovingly, the Bible assures us that God sees your pain and promises a beautiful future where he will "swallow up death" and "wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8). We hope your precious memories of Torrance will console you in the days ahead. And, as the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends.
