Dear Cousin Tony: Thank you for being a wonderful man of wisdom, devotion and love. I am ecstatic that you shared so much with your children and grandchildren, especially the art of fishing. I am sure you did some fishing with your big cousin, my dad, Clarence Edward Pruitt. And like you, my father loved his children! The photograph of you reminds me of your ingenious grandfather, my Uncle Ben. Sir, your love of family and community will live forever in the hearts and souls of your descendants, siblings, and extended family. We love you forever, Cousin Tony. Now an ancestor, you will continue to remind us of the importance of familial devotion and spiritual love. Love, Bernadette Pruitt, Your Little Cousin (Daughter of Clarence Pruitt, Granddaughter of Clinton (Aunt Mary's Brother) and Elizabeth Pruitt, and Great-granddaughter of Richard and Mollie Pruitt
