I didn't know a lot about Sam except whenever he would visit my home He could tell when I was feeling low he always gave me some encouraging words and he would make me laugh before he left. He it was always nice to be around him. I'm sure he's going to be missed. Such a wonderful young man.

Cora Bowe posted:

Our brother Sam, he was for us like Abraham's ram . As God provided Abraham a burnt offering lamb, God appointed Sam as our sacrificial Ram. For 3 years, he gave of himself all he had. Never thinking of only himself but only thinking of what he had to do to bring his family through. He had a heart of Gold and if his story was to be told, it would make the heavens fold and shine Jesus's light on his flight. Gone from labor to reward our Ram, SAM. Composed by Cora L. Bowe 1/12/21
