My condolences, my prayers and my love to the family. My coworker at the GWY. We always told each other corny jokes and got in each other's nerves (in a good way). He was always pleasant and upbeat. He would ride that bug around and when he saw me would blow that horn like he was on the freeway. He made the best of his job and rarely let anyone get on his nerves. Rest In Peace my little brother. You were definitely one of the best people that I've met at the job. 🌹

I worked with Greg downtown at the PO. He was always very nice to me. One of the people I missed when I retired. Dang, he died too soon.
