I met Brenda when I moved to Parkview Tower eight years ago, and quickly was attracted by her no-nonsense yet friendly attitude and the way she kept going! So often I would see her on the path to the store, doing what many of our neighbors with legs wouldn't. She once gave me a compliment on how I carry myself that meant a lot coming from her. I saw her the day before she left us, she was the same as always, "Hey Baby, how you doin'?!" and that is how I'll remember her.
