Algen...Little League baseball. Mark Twain, Kemeny Center. I tell this story so many times. My son was either the pitcher or the batter. He mistakenly hit someone from the opposite team with the ball. I didn't see what happened. Of course, I was running my mouth with the other parents. I only saw when the kid rushed my son. You stepped in front of him and said "ain't nobody gonna mess with him. You literally stopped me (and whoever that other kids' parent was) from getting into a brawl. Lol. I had forgotten that some of our family members were close with each other. Your grandmother yelled that's right! That's your cousin. I often thought about you. Even when I moved away. You were ALWAYS respectful. And smiley lol ❤️. Love Ms. Calvin. (Clyburn)

Dear Family, Although we are miles apart, you are always loved and remembered in my heart. I pray every night for peace, love, health for the family and world. We may not understand the why's of the world but God knows and hears our every thought and supplies our needs. Lean on our Savior for comfort and understanding. The Ridgell, Brooks Family.
