Shotgun was what I called him he was my uncle. It was disappointing that I missed his funeral. My wife and I went by the house only to find Tony his son there. We will visit several times through the year often times talking about fishing. even when we couldn't finish, ' cause it was too cold we go sit by the water and have a few. We would not agree on things but we would agree to disagree Jerry had his Ways We all knew that!We always come by during Christmas and bring a little something for him. He would cause sometimes asking can I come out to play? He will be missed greatly by Kathy and Everett Stevenson. What
