I send my sincerest condolences to the Family of Missionary Mother Helen Thurston. She was such a devout servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. I had watched her serve as a Missionary since my youthful, teen years. She always carried herself with a dignified standard in Holiness until illness set in. I am thankful that she was in place as the instructor of Aspiring Missionaries, when I joined the class in 2009-2010, and that I was able to learn from her. She was a strict teacher. And she refused to allow her trainees to perform any classwork in mediocrity. Because she commanded that we NEVER offer mediocre work unto the Lord. I Praise God for her life and her witness.

My deepest condolences to the family of Helen Thurston. Missionary Thurston was employed I met Missionary Thurston at the Wayne County jail in 1979. She witnessed to me about The Love of Jesus Christ and because of her planting seeds in my life I was saved in 1980. She was a devout Christian who loved the Lord with all our heart and all her soul. She was a spiritual woman that walked in holiness all the days that I witnessed her life. I thank God because she taught me at the beginning of my spiritual journey that I must be saved by the water and of the spirit. I thank God for her.
