Precious Memories oh how they will "linger forever and flood my soul." We are a small family and my mother taught us to love, forgive one another and seek to always do what is right and pleases God. Therefore, my continued challenge to our small family is to remember to love one another even though we sometimes must agree to disagree and always seek to put God first in your thoughts and actions.I love you all unconditionally and praying that God's blessings will overflow as we all strive to live in His Devine will!!! 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

Hey Bruce this is Brenda, I want to thank you for helping me with my kids when they were younger- I didn't have much help but you were the one that was there. Remember when we whooped everybody in spades. I also remember you teaching me how to put a crease in my jeans with out a iron. Lol So sad you had to go so soon until we meet again rest peacefully.

Awe Brenda I had to chuckle when I read your message because Bruce loved to have perfect creases in his jeans. 😄😄😄

Uncle Bruce, I'll never forget the time you were babysitting my brother and I and took us swimming at the rec center in rouge. I had to be 5/6yrs old. Idk how I got into the 5ft area but I remember struggling to breathe and kicking like crazy. All of a sudden I felt you pull both my arms out the water and carry me over the shallow side. You saved my life that day! ☐☐ I also remember you picking us up on your bike. You'd let Brian get the seat n I always got stuck sitting on the handlebars. I was so afraid and crying and you and Brian were just laughing away! I swear we got from Goodell to beechwood in less than 3 mins. You were always a pleasure to be around. You stayed making everyone laugh...definitely the life of the party. You will be missed dearly! I love you! Say hello to aunt Brenda and my grama for me ☐☐☐☐😄 Rest peacefully
