Martha lit a candle in honor of Doris.

Hello Debra. It's Martha. I know all too well how the loss of a mother can place hurt in your heart. Your mother was a beautiful soul. I remember, my grandmother, your mother, and a few other women from the church would all ride together for choir rehearsal. I'd listen about, listen to them laugh, talk about dessert recipes, how their families were doing, and of course talk about Pastor Barlow and church business. I appreciated those moments. No, I enjoyed that time, not just singing amongst them in the choir, but being able to listen and absorb the spiritual essence your mother placed in the atmosphere. God Bless You Debra.

Alvin L. Rainey, Jr. lit a candle in honor of Doris.

Deb, I send my deepest condolences to you, your family, and friends. No one can truly measure the pain of loss, but I had the privilege of knowing your family; especially your parents. Your dad and mom were both jewels. May God bring you the peace and comfort that you seek. My thoughts and prayers are with you...
