Madeline and I have been friends since the seventies. We worked at the old 640 Temple and always stayed in touch. I think we talked more this year and I encouraged her to do what they wanted her to do and never give up. I will miss our long talks and her crazy jokes. Love you..

Madeline will be tremendously missed. She was a good friend , my son's God mother and my convocation roommate for many years. I will cherish the memories that we shared.

Madeline had a heart of gold, loved family, a great sense of humor/intellect & would open her home to those in need. She also wouldn't hold back when the truth needed to be said. I'll miss her, but I know her spirit will live on in peace with the Lord! Susan
