Suzy. We had the best times making up songs and singing together, harmonizing, during our sleepovers at one another's homes as well as hanging out into our young adulthood. I have many memories I will cherish. Rest in peace my dear childhood friend. Love you.. Barbara Wilson

I am saddened to learn of Susan's passing. I first met her at Wayne State University when I was a graduate student at WSU's School of Business. I will always remember her as a radiant and giving person. I still have a book that contains a note that she wrote to me on the inside cover. Rest In Peace.
