Tameria Johnson posted:

Our interaction and relationship goes back over 35 plus years. There are so many stories to reminisce about, but only one will be told today. You was always a smooth conversational and what I would call an entrepreneur. Our meeting turned out to be what is now a lifetime connection, because I introduce you to my sister (Tauna) and you two married and became parents. Even though the marriage did not last, you all remained true to parenting. Life has had its ups and down and you stood true and most definitely fought the good fight. Now you can let go and rest your soul and mind. You made it to the end. Rest, my brother-in-law. Expressing my condolences. From Tameria Johnson-Lewis and Dale Lewis.
