Rev. Floyd A. Davis posted:

Reverend Dr Mebane was a blessing to the entire Christian community here in the metropolitan Detroit area. Reverend faithfully and diligently served the Tennessee School of Religion teaching the principles and precepts of Jesus Christ, he taught several ministers, leaders, and deacons and persons who went on to become pastors, and leaders in their local churches. He was a viable, valiant servant in the Lord's army and his ministry and friendship will be sorely missed.

I was saddened to hear about the passing of Rev. Dr. Bill Mebane. I wasn't able to attend the celebration of his life, legacy, and ministry. As someone at Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church, who was called and being prepared for pastoral ministry, Dr. Mebane generously extended words of wisdom and encouragement. I'm grateful for his faithfulness and servant leadership. I'm praying for Sister Mebane and the family. God is always gracious and near. Grace and peace.
