Mrs. Key, thank you for your life long friendship with my mother. So many memories that you guys had over the years. The time spent shared between the two of you. The friendship flowed down to your children; Chris and Manuel, Cassie and Lynn and Sean and Alfred. One memorable moment that sticks out - the two of you spending time together at the elementary school, Van Zile and the hours spent talking on the phone and must not forget you were her running buddy. Thank you again! Now the two of you are back together again. ❤️🙏

My Mother-in-Love, was a force, who had strong will and a stronger love for her God and her family. There are so many memories and I thank God for each of them, like your last visit to GA we were so excited watching your interaction with your Zaza and the Photo session was priceless. ☐ But since you've known me most of my life and all of my adult life I'll miss our talks and your wisdom nuggets even when you didn't know that you were handing them out. Tears will fall, life has changed but like you I will trust God that he knows best. ❤️ RIL Beautiful soul 🙏
