Macie, My dear friend of many years. I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when you first started working at Henry Ford and you were living with Lucille before you moved to Southfield in the Hidden Valley Apartments. We used to ride to work on some days. We go way back, and what a blessing it is to have a sister, I totally understand your loss, I know how close you and Lucille were. Sisters are our gifts from God and when they make their transition, just know, they will always be with us. Lucille is resting comfortably now, with our Lord and Savior. Sending hugs, love and prayers. Your dear friend Shelia Douglas-Collins
